ArvinMeritor Wins New Motors Business from Hyundai Motor Company

BEIJING, China (April 21, 2008) – ArvinMeritor (NYSE: ARM) announced today that its Body Systems business unit within the Light Vehicle Systems (LVS) business group has been awarded new business to supply over two million window regulator motors to Hyundai Motor Company. The agreement will supply Hyundai's Elantra, a mid-size sedan, with ArvinMeritor's New Generation Motor (NGM) II from mid-2008 through mid-2012.

"This important new business award reflects Hyundai's confidence in ArvinMeritor's world-class engineering and manufacturing capabilities," said Phil Martens, president, LVS. "The NGM II offers several benefits, including an improved electromagnetic compliance design, a more robust brush card, and lower noise, vibration and harshness due to the improved rigidity of the gear housing – all at a reduced cost."

The New Generation Motor II will be manufactured by ArvinMeritor's facility located in Zhenjiang, China for the Hyundai Elantra assembled in China.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains statements relating to future results of the company (including certain projections and business trends) that are "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "should," "are likely to be," "will" and similar expressions. Actual results may differ materially from those projected as a result of certain risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to global economic and market cycles and conditions; the demand for commercial, specialty and light vehicles for which the company supplies products; risks inherent in operating abroad (including foreign currency exchange rates and potential disruption of production and supply due to terrorist attacks or acts of aggression); availability and cost of raw materials, including steel and oil; OEM program delays; demand for and market acceptance of new and existing products; successful development of new products; reliance on major OEM customers; labor relations of the company, its suppliers and customers, including potential disruptions in supply of parts to our facilities or demand for our products due to work stoppages; the financial condition of the company's suppliers and customers, including potential bankruptcies; possible adverse effects of any future suspension of normal trade credit terms by our suppliers; potential difficulties competing with companies that have avoided their existing contracts in bankruptcy and reorganization proceedings; successful integration of acquired or merged businesses; the ability to achieve the expected annual savings and synergies from past and future business combinations and the ability to achieve the expected benefits of restructuring actions; success and timing of potential divestitures; potential impairment of long-lived assets, including goodwill; potential adjustment of the value of deferred tax assets; competitive product and pricing pressures; the amount of the company's debt; the ability of the company to continue to comply with covenants in its financing agreements; the ability of the company to access capital markets; credit ratings of the company's debt; the outcome of existing and any future legal proceedings, including any litigation with respect to environmental or asbestos-related matters; the outcome of actual and potential product liability and warranty and recall claims; rising costs of pension and other post-retirement benefits and possible changes in pension and other accounting rules; as well as other risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to those detailed herein and from time to time in other filings of the company with the SEC. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and the company undertakes no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as otherwise required by law.
